Brief Report

On April 19, 2021, the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell of Amareshwar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad (B), organized an Awareness Programme on Anti-Sexual Harassment in the College Seminar Hall. The event, introduced by Mr. Kapil, aimed to educate students, faculty, and staff about the importance of preventing sexual harassment and to reinforce the institution's commitment to ensuring a safe and respectful environment.

The meeting focused on two primary agendas: organizing the awareness program and reviewing any reported complaints. Discussions emphasized the need for continuous education on preventing harassment and highlighted the importance of maintaining a transparent and accessible complaint mechanism to effectively address any grievances.

The program was attended by key members of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell, including Sri. Rajlaxmikanth (Non-teaching Staff), Dr. Savitribai Hebbale (NGO Representative, Akkamahadevi Mahila NGO, Bidar), Adv. Balaji Kambar (Legal Advisor), Mr. Sangamesh Basavaraj (Student Representative), and Miss. Kirti Bhaskar (Student Representative). Their collective efforts underscored the importance of fostering a supportive environment where victims feel empowered to report incidents without fear of retaliation.

The programme concluded with a reaffirmation of the college's commitment to a harassment-free environment. The Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell pledged to maintain ongoing dialogue and vigilance, ensuring the safety and well-being of all college members. Additionally, the cell resolved to conduct regular workshops to further enhance awareness and understanding of these crucial issues.
