On June 28, 2018, the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell of Amareshwar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad (B), organized an Awareness Programme on Anti-Sexual Harassment in the College Seminar Hall. The event, introduced by Mr. Uttam Dande, aimed to educate students, faculty, and staff about the importance of preventing sexual harassment and to reinforce the institution's commitment to maintaining a safe and respectful environment.

The meeting focused on two key agendas: organizing the awareness program and reviewing any reported complaints. Members discussed the necessity of continuous education on preventing harassment and emphasized the importance of a transparent and accessible complaint mechanism to address any grievances effectively.

The program was attended by key members of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell, including Smt. Priya Milind (Chairman), Smt. Shweta B. Allur, Sri. Rajlaxmikanth, and Mr. Sangamesh Basavaraj. Their collective efforts underscored the importance of creating a supportive environment where victims feel empowered to report incidents without fear of retaliation.

The programme concluded with a reaffirmation of the college's dedication to fostering a harassment-free environment. The Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell committed to ongoing dialogue and vigilance to ensure the safety and well-being of all college members.
