Brief Report

On 28th June 2018, Amareshwar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad, held an Anti-Ragging Awareness Program in the College Seminar Hall. The event aimed to emphasize the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment on campus. Shri Prakash Patil made students aware of the program's significance, and Dr. Jayadevi Teli, the Principal, highlighted the necessity of fostering a culture of mutual respect and support among students. Dr. Gautam Gaikwad, Co-Ordinator of the Anti-Ragging Cell, outlined the strict measures in place to prevent ragging and the severe consequences for any violations.

Key speakers at the event included Dr. Shaik Mujeeb, IQAC Co-Ordinator, who discussed the role of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell in ensuring student safety, and Mr. Uttam Dande, NSS Officer, who encouraged active student participation in maintaining a ragging-free campus. The event also featured a discussion session where it was noted that the college had successfully eradicated ragging, with no incidents reported by the monitoring and control squad committee. This achievement was commended, reflecting the effectiveness of the college's ongoing efforts to promote a safe campus environment.

The program concluded with a Q&A session where students raised concerns and received guidance on the college's anti-ragging policies. The event was a success, reinforcing the college's commitment to a ragging-free campus and encouraging all students to contribute to a positive and supportive atmosphere at Amareshwar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad.
