On February 10, 2023, the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell of Amareswar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad (B), organized an Awareness Programme on Anti-Sexual Harassment in the College Seminar Hall. The event, introduced by Dr. G A Gaikwad (Assistant Professor), aimed to educate students, faculty, and staff about the importance of preventing sexual harassment and to reinforce the institution's commitment to maintaining a safe and respectful environment.

The meeting focused on two primary agendas: organizing the awareness program and reviewing any reported complaints. Discussions emphasized the need for continuous education on preventing harassment and highlighted the importance of a transparent and accessible complaint mechanism to effectively address any grievances.

The program was attended by key members of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell, including Miss. Vishali Uppe (Non-teaching Staff), Sri. Rajlaxmikanth (Non-teaching Staff), Dr. Savitribai Hebbale (NGO Representative, Akkamahadevi Mahila NGO, Bidar), Adv. Balaji Kambar (Legal Advisor), and Mr. Sangamesh Basavaraj (Student Representative). Their collective efforts underscored the importance of fostering a supportive environment where victims feel empowered to report incidents without fear of retaliation.

The programme concluded with a reaffirmation of the college's commitment to a harassment-free environment. The Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell pledged to maintain ongoing dialogue and vigilance, ensuring the safety and well-being of all college members. Additionally, the cell resolved to conduct regular workshops to further enhance awareness and understanding of these crucial issues.
