Brief Report

On 28th June 2018, Amareswar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad, held an Anti-Ragging Awareness Program in the College Seminar Hall. The event aimed to emphasize the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment on campus. Shri Prakash Patil made students aware of the program's significance, and Dr. Jayadevi Tell, the Principal, highlighted the necessity of fostering a culture of mutual respect and support among students. Dr. Gautam Gaikwad, Co-ordinator of the Anti-Ragging Cell, outlined the strict measures in place to prevent ragging and the severe consequences for any violations.

Key speakers at the event included Dr. Shalk Mujeeb, IQAC Co-ordinator, who discussed the role of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell in ensuring student safety, and Mr. Uttam Dande, NSS Officer, who encouraged active student participation in maintaining a ragging-free campus. The event also featured a discussion session where it was noted that the college had successfully eradicated ragging, with no incidents reported by the monitoring and control squad committee. This achievement was commended, reflecting the effectiveness of the college's ongoing efforts to promote a safe campus environment.

The program concluded with a Q&A session where students raised concerns and received guidance on the college's anti-ragging policies. The event was a success, reinforcing the college's commitment to a ragging-free campus and encouraging all students to contribute to a positive and supportive atmosphere at Amareswar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad.

Brief Report

On 4th July 2022, Amareswar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad, held an Anti-Ragging Awareness Program in the College Seminar Hall. Mr. Shivram Rathod, Assistant Professor, led the session, delivering crucial information on the college's anti-ragging policies. He emphasized the need for a ragging-free environment and outlined the preventive measures and disciplinary actions in place to safeguard students' safety and dignity. His presentation underscored the college's ongoing commitment to promoting a secure and respectful campus atmosphere.

Dr. Gautam Gaikwad, Co-Ordinator of the Anti-Ragging Cell, Dr. Shaik Mujeeb, IQAC Co-Ordinator, and Mr. Uttam Dande, NSS Officer, were present at the program and contributed to the discussion. Dr. Gaikwad explained the continuous monitoring efforts to prevent ragging, while Dr. Mujeeb and Mr. Dande highlighted the importance of student participation and awareness in maintaining a safe and inclusive campus.

The event concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students had the opportunity to ask questions and clarify their understanding of the anti-ragging policies. The program successfully reinforced the college's dedication to a ragging-free environment, encouraging all students to take an active role in supporting a positive and inclusive community at Amareswar Arts and Commerce Degree College, Aurad.
